By Censtant, A B No. 63-For the preservation of beaver, otter and other game. Makes the close season from March 15th to September 15th.

On the question of woman's suffrage, after the resolution was read. Beck made a brief speech in presenting three petitions in favor of the measure, one from the Reno Gazette office with 640 signatures, one from the men of Douglass county very unanimously signed and a similar one from the eastern part of the State.

Mrs. M. T. Maynard of Reno was introduced by Mr. Beck to speak for him. The lady is very able speaker, and she certainly did handle the subject for all it was worth, producing facts, figures and plenty of good logic in support of her argument.

Denton spoke thrillingly in opposition. arguing against any possible benefit that could result from loading women into the filthy pools of politics.

McNaughton asked for information relative to the workings of woman suffrage in Colorado and elsewhere.

sidered Beck a weak man, for he had to get a woman to skeak for him.

McDonald said the Republicans should have settled this weman auffrage question when they were on deck and not left it for the Silver party to figure out.

Allen of Eureka was opposed to woman suffrage but would vote for the bill in order to have the whole proposition brought before the people if possible.

Spetker Allen opposed the measure, claiming that the women didn't want it.

Noel made a nice little speech in favor of it. The committee arose and reported to the House in regular session adversely to the resolution

Hogan made a wind-up speech on the subject strongly and eloquently favoring woman suffrage, and the roll call on final passage resulted as follows:

Ayes-Allen of Eureka, Beels, Beck, Coryell, Crisler, Greenwood, Hall, Hogan, Noel, Pitt, Stanley, Wilson-12.

Noes-Briggs, Brockliss, Constant, Court, Denton, Flannigan, Francis, Gorman, Hinman, Leidy, Murphy, McDonald, McNaughton, Russell, Weiland, Mr. Speaker-17

And so the woman suffrage proposition was lost, as it doubtless will be in the

By Francis A B No. 66-Leaving to the voters of the respective counties the questions of consolidating Lyon and Storey, Ormsby and Douglas, Humboldt and Churchill, Elko and White Pine, and Esmeralda and Nye counties. After some discussion the bill was rejected by a vote of

The Inaugural ball seems to hang fire. It passed the Senate all right, but got knocked out in the Assembly. The chances are that there will be no Gubernatorial fandango this time unless the price of silver takes a sudden

The Hawaiian cable amendment to the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill went through the Senate easily, five Democrats voting with the Republicans and Popullets for it and and one Republican with the Democrats against it. It authorizes the President to make a contract for laying the cable and appropriates $500,000 to begin the houses on the block for a bite to eat and with such poor success that he was almost discouraged. One house was left, and he concluded he would try it. The kitchen door was opened by the mistress of the mansion.

His Little Ruse. The tramp had tried a half dozen

"I beg your pardon, lady," he said with a bow, "but can I get something to eat here?

"I don't know whether you can or not," she replied. "You tramps bother me almost to death."

"I'm sure, lady, I don't wish to annoy you," apologized the tramp, "and I only came here because—because"—— "Because what?" she asked.

"Because, lady, at the house next door they set such fare before me that really I could not eat, and when I refused it the lady of the house told me I couldn't get half as good anywhere else on the block and drove me out."

The woman looked over the tramp a minute.

"Did she say that?" she asked hotly. "Well, you come in here and see," and as the tramp went in he forgot what a har he was.—Detroit Free Press.

A Triton Among the Minnows. Prince Adolphus of Schaumburg-Lippe is the hero of the following story: Dur ing the congress of princes held in Frank-fort in the year 1863 a banquet was given by the authorities, to which the notables of the city were invited. The sovereign princes of the German confederation sat apart from the rest of the company and were engaged in an animated conversation when suddenly there was a general commotion among the illustri-ous guests. The crowned heads rose from their seats to welcome an insignificant little gentleman who had joined the circle. To everybody's astonishment Prince Adolphus alone kept his seat. Then the Elector of Hesse went up to him and whispered in his ear:

"My dear prince, won't you speak to the gentleman along with the rest? Don't you know who he is?"

"It is Baron Rothschild."

"What of that? He is nothing to me. I don't owe the fellow anything."-Zeit-

Effect of a Tropical Climate.

"The laziest fellers I ever see, not barrin Thompson there even," said the man with the ginger beard, "was down in Central America. Tell you what I see once. I wandered into a little saloon that one of the greasers kep', and what should I see but a lot of fellers settin round a table with a lot of dice on it. an all of 'em watchin them dice as if they s'pected them to turn over of theirselves, which, sure enough, they did in a minute. Then I got ento their game. You see, about every three or four minutes they is a earthquake in that country, and them lazy half breeds was lettin the earthquake do the shakin of the box for 'em. Now, what do you think of that?"—Indianapolis Journal.

A Sudden End of a Whist Game. In the spring of 1789 a "fattish" lady the epithet is not mine—was playing at cards at an assembly. Her partner screamed out: "Dear me, madam, what are you doing! What can you be dreaming about? You have the ace in your hand, and you suffer the adversary's king to pass." A glance at the lady soon showed that any explanation of her misconduct was impossible. She had been seized with a stroke of "apoplexy, which put an end to both her and the rubber. —Temple Bar.

Whether the Senate will take up and pass the railroad pooling bill, is still a matter of doubt with the chances somewhat against the bill. A member of the House, Conn of Indiana, is responsible for the following language: "The Senate can do this country a service by not taking up the pooling bill. That measure was lobbied through the House by the liberal use of railroad passes and a generous employment of railroad attorneys, and deserves to be killed in the St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 7, 1894. Eureka Chemical & M'Cg Co., La Crosse, Wis. Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure." "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "BACO-CURO." Three weeks ago to day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I considered myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me.
